Grounds of Objection:

Use your own words. You may wish to consider these topics:

The residential element. The height, mass and scale of blocks up to 6 storeys high, impacting neighbours. Loss of light, overshadowing. Overbearing. No affordable housing. Inadequate car parking with only 54 spaces for 109 residential units. New Berry Lane is unsuitable for traffic access. Danger to school children.

The retail element. Permanent loss of 50% of the units, occupied by local successful businesses. The future of all businesses, including Waitrose now uncertain.

The car parking element. Reduction in car parking from 270 to 127, including loss of Elmbridge BC car park, in contravention of planning guidelines. Most current users, including Doctors Surgery, parents of Burhill School, customers and staff of all retail and other business, St. Peters Church, all visitors to Hershams Green, Riverside etc. will be unable to park.

Hershams. This is our village, our close-knit community, not a generic exercise in a built-up town centre location. The scheme will tear the village apart and its character will be lost forever.
